Stunning Hinterland Retreat With Income

Set in the hills of the beautiful Byron Bay hinterland this gorgeous elevated north facing property is private and peaceful.

Situated on 93 acres with abundant creeks and dams , two approved additional cottages with strong rental returns and approval for an additional three cabins. Eco tourism expansion on this property has enormous potential.

Currently bio-dynamic registration is held on the property for the macadamia plantation which is an additional income stream. There are 2,500 trees on approximately 35 acres.

There is also an opportunity to subdivide off 15 hectares for primary production without a building entitlement.

The main home is architecturally built using lovely hardwood timber and rendered brickwork. High open ceilings feature throughout the home. With 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms , numerous living spaces set over 2 wings, there is plenty of privacy and space for the extended family.

Many of the rooms open out onto decks and courtyards overlooking the
